

The image shows a classic Parisian apartment hallway. The floor is made of light-colored marble tiles with a geometric pattern of gold and grey lines and small circular medallions. On the left, there is a large, ornate window with a white frame. In the center, a dark green door is slightly ajar, revealing a glimpse of the living area. To the right, a staircase with red carpeting and a white handrail leads up. The walls are white with decorative architectural details like pilasters and arches. The ceiling is also white with a recessed circular light fixture.
